

BSMI makes a formal announcement that vehicle and portable GPS products will be subject to legal inspection as of July 1st, 2009

After a preliminary announcement that vehicle and portable GPS products will be subject to legal inspection as of July 1st, 2009 as well as a draft asked for public comments in January 2009, Taiwan BSMI released the formal inspection requirements on March 25, 2009. The requirements will take effect as of July 1st, 2009. Then, importers have to acquire a Certificate of Import Inspection or Certificate of the Registration of Product Certification issued by BSMI before declaring imports to the Customs; domestic vendors are required to acquire a Certificate of the Registration of Product Certification or Certificate of Domestic Inspection conducted by BSMI before shipping from the factory to sale.

Bureau Veritas ADT has full GPS product testing capacities and offers related inspection services from now on. Due to upcoming effective date, July 1st, vendors are reminded to finish the inspection and acquire the certificate as soon as possible in order to avoid launch delay.
